

BASEBALL—SPORTS OF ALL SORTS—BOXING

RESULTS YESTERDAY

National—Cincinnati 4, Chicago 3; Brooklyn 6, New York 2; St. Louis 1-1, Pittsburgh 4-1 (2d game 11 in., darkness); Philadelphia 5-3, Boston 7-12.

American—Washington 4, Chicago 4 (10 in., called by agreement); New York 5, Detroit 6; Boston 6-7, St. Louis 9-2.

Federal—Chicago 0, Indianapolis 2; St. Louis 4, Kansas City 3; Buffalo 3-5, Brooklyn 1-5 (2d game 12 in., darkness); Pittsburgh - Baltimore, rain.

Apparently the war in Europe will have no effect on the lightweight boxing division, of which Freddie Welsh, a British subject, is the leader.

At first it was noised about that Welsh would be called to the colors. England, however, is relying on her professional army, and so far has not called the reserve. Welsh is planning a trip to this country during the fall and will undoubtedly match up with Charlie White, the local sensation.

That's the bout we are all waiting for. White is clearly entitled to the Welsh match, as he is the peer of any lightweight in the country. He proved that when he punished Willie Ritchie in ten rounds at Milwaukee.

White has a style that could cope with Welsh's manner of attack. He carries a stouter punch than Ritchie, and on past performances can land it oftener. White is right at the top of his form now. He will remain there for some time, as he is a youngster who takes care of his physical condition.

He can afford to wait for Welsh, if necessary; as a vacation will not hurt him as much as it will the Britisher.

Sloufeds downed Kay See on good baserunning and Davenport's tight pitching. Easterly spanked a double and two singles.

STANDING OF THE CLUBS

National League.

W. L. Pct.	W. L. Pct.
Boston .65 51 .560	Br'k'yn .54 62 .456
N. York .63 51 .553	Cin'ati .55 64 .462
S. Louis .64 58 .525	Phil'a .53 63 .457
Chic'go .63 58 .521	Pitts'gh .53 63 .457

American League.

W. L. Pct.	W. L. Pct.
Phil'a .83 38 .686	Chicago .60 63 .488
Boston .70 50 .583	N. York .56 67 .455
Wash'n .61 57 .517	S. Louis .56 67 .455
Detroit .63 61 .508	Cleve'd .39 85 .315

Federal League.

W. L. Pct.	W. L. Pct.
Ind'p's .68 52 .567	Br'k'n .58 57 .504
Chic'go .66 54 .550	K. City .56 64 .467
Balt're .61 54 .530	S. Louis .54 67 .446
Buffalo .58 57 .504	Pitts'gh .49 65 .430

Braves at Last Head National League—Sox on Way West.

At last George Stallings and his Boston Braves are at the head of the National League flight, a position they have been fighting for since July 18, when they started from last place on the climb that has been the sensation of a sensational year.

To accomplish this feat the Boston people have won 30 out of their last 38 games. All teams have looked alike. They have impartially trimmed first and second division clubs, finding the Giants about the easiest proposition in the entire ensemble.

Individual work, except in the box, has not been accountable for the rise. Not at all. On the other hand, Stallings is bossing a ball team, a team in the real sense of the word. Individual achievements are subordinated to the common good, and the two or three stars of the troop have sunk their personal ambitions in favor of the machine.

Whether Stallings can stick in his present exalted position is an entirely different proposition. Here is where psychology comes into the game.